On Oia, with a view to Thirasia and the Aegean sea, the hotel is developed on a sloped plot, with independent suites and public spaces (reception, restaurant, pool). The hotel was reconstructed on a functional and aesthetics scope. The goal was to unify the hotel as a distinct whole, functionality of spaces, exploiting the view and the orientation, with respect on the same time of the local architectural language.

plot Hom hotel was created, with 13 suites, reception, bar-restaurant and a pool, developed on 4 levels with an elevator that connects the 3 levels for ease of access.

second level and the suites are 2 on the 1st level, 2 on the 2nd, 7 on the 3rd and 2 on the 4th level.
